

Berger's recently published book, "Children, Save Yourself!" is filled with how the life of his father's family who lived in Krosno, Poland, was deeply impacted when invaded by German soldiers Sept. 1, 1939. Everything in the book is from cassettes Berger received from his father and interviews of his uncle conducted by other family members.

Author Ronald J. Berger

April 10
6:00 p.m.

Irvin L. Young
Memorial Library